SOME GENERAL CRITERIA FOR TEACHERS AT ANTONINE COLLEGE

- High level of enthusiasm and competency.
- Ability to incorporate learning technologies into teaching areas at different year levels.
- Willingness and capacity to be involved in co-curriculum activities.
- Ability to engage students in meaningful learning both in and outside the classroom.
- Ability to engage in and promote the Maronite Antonine charism of the College and be supportive of the Catholic ethos of the College.
- A willingness and commitment to improve student outcomes.
- Suitability as a role model within the College community.
- Understanding of individual learning plans.
- Ability to understand the culture of the College community and communicate with the wider community.
- Willingness to take steps to gain accreditation to teach in a Catholic school.
- To be committed to ongoing professional learning to meet the objectives of the College Vision and Mission Statement.